

INTERNATIONAL
FRESH PRODUCE SAFETY
Symposium

Brought to you by the Fresh Produce Safety Centre

Expression of Interest – Strategic & Technical Speakers

 Date: 29–30 July 2025

 Location: Novotel Sydney Brighton Beach, Sydney, NSW, Australia

The International Fresh Produce Safety Symposium 2025 is set to bring together local and global experts to explore cutting-edge innovations, emerging risks, and adaptations shaping the future security and safety of fresh produce. We are inviting expressions of interest (EOIs) from people across the industry to contribute to a dynamic, solutions-focused program.

We welcome EOIs from:

-  Growers, Producers, Industry Leaders & Supply Chain Experts
-  Researchers, Academics, Solution and Service Providers
-  Food Safety Standard Owners & Certification Bodies
-  Government & Regulatory Representatives
-  Food Safety & Quality Professionals

We are seeking diverse and thought-provoking presentations, including but not limited to:

-  Innovative Solutions & Technology – AI, data-driven safety, and emerging technologies
-  Climate & Risk Resilience – Adapting to environmental, chemical and microbial challenges
-  Sustainability & Food Safety – Balancing responsible production with safety standards
-  Lessons from Outbreaks – Case studies, crisis response, and key learnings
-  Global Standards & Compliance – Aligning regulations and risk-based approaches
-  Supply Chain Traceability – Ensuring safety from farm to fork in a shifting market

This symposium is an opportunity to share insights, drive meaningful change, and connect with global industry leaders committed to the future of fresh produce food safety.

To express your interest or submit an abstract, please contact:

 Jody Sharpe, Communications & Events Officer – events@fpsc-anz.com

 Deadline: 27 February 2025

Important Information: FPSC is a not-for-profit organisation, and while we are unable to cover travel and accommodation expenses for all speakers, we are happy to discuss potential support options on a case-by-case basis. A complimentary symposium ticket will be provided for the day of your presentation in recognition of your valuable contribution.

Let's work together to innovate, adapt, and secure the future of fresh produce food safety.
